Consumer Guide to Agency Relationships

Smythe, Cramer Co (dba Howard Hanna) and all other Ohio real estate brokerages are required by Ohio law to provide you with certain information about how real estate agents work and to have you acknowledge receipt of this information. THIS IS NOT A CONTRACT AND DOES NOT OBLIGATE YOU TO HOWARD HANNA IN ANY WAY.

We are pleased that you have selected us to help you with your real estate needs. Whether you are selling, buying, or leasing real estate, Howard Hanna will provide you with the highest standards of expertise and assistance.

Because buying or selling a home may be your largest financial transaction, it is important to understand the roles of the agents and brokers with whom you will be working. The information below explains how brokerages and agents work for buyers and sellers in real estate transactions. For more information on agency law in Ohio, you also may contact the Ohio Division of Real Estate and Professional Licensing at (614) 466-4100 or at www.com.state.oh.us.

Seller Agency: Most sellers choose to list their homes for sale with a real estate brokerage. When they do so, they sign a listing agreement that authorizes the brokerage and the listing agent to represent their interests. As such, the brokerage and listing agent must: follow the seller's lawful instructions, be loyal to the seller, promote the seller's best interests, disclose material facts to the seller, maintain confidential information, act with reasonable skill and care, and account for any money that they handle in the transaction. Howard Hanna does not offer subagency, which means that it does not authorize any agents to act on a seller's behalf unless the seller specifically appoints that agent. Typically, part of the listing compensation will be shared (normally through a split of a percentage of the purchase price) with the brokerage for the buyer's agent that successfully produced the buyer. Such sharing of listing compensation does not modify or lessen the listing agent's obligations owed to the seller.

Buyer Agency: Buyers typically choose to work with a real estate agent. Buyers often want to be represented in the transaction as well. This is known as buyer agency. A brokerage and an agent that agree to represent a buyer must follow the buyer's lawful instructions, be loyal to the buyer, promote the buyer's best interests, disclose material facts to the buyer, maintain confidential information, and account for any money that they handle in the transaction. Buyers are advised that sellers and their agents are not obligated to keep confidential the existence, terms or conditions of a buyer's offer. Buyer agents are compensated for their services, often in large part by sharing in the listing compensation paid by the seller. Any such sharing of compensation does not modify or lessen the buyer agent's obligations to the buyer.

Disclaimer: Howard Hanna and its agents cannot and do not (a) review all public records relating to properties that are listed or sold by them; or (b) investigate property information contained in prior listing and/or sales files, either within the company or other brokerages. Buyers are advised to investigate the physical condition of the property and all public records to determine its condition and suitability before purchasing it.

Dual Agency: Occasionally the same agent and brokerage that represent the seller also represent the buyer in a transaction. This is referred to as dual agency. When a brokerage and its agents become "dual agents," they must maintain a neutral position in the transaction. They may not advocate the position of one client over the other client, nor disclose any confidential information to the other party without written consent.

In-Company Split Agency: On occasion, the buyer and seller will each be represented by two different agents from the same brokerage. In this case, each agent will represent the best interests of their respective clients. When this occurs, the brokerage will be considered a dual agent. As a dual agent, the brokerage and its managers will maintain a neutral position and cannot advocate the position of one client over another. The brokerage also will protect the confidential information of both parties.

Working with Howard Hanna: Howard Hanna represents both buyers and sellers. Therefore, it is possible for one agent to represent a buyer who wishes to purchase property listed with another Howard Hanna agent (in-company split agency). If this occurs, then each agent will represent her or his own client, but Howard Hanna and its managers will act as dual agents. This means that the brokerage and its managers will maintain a neutral position and not take any action that favors one client over the other. Howard Hanna will supervise both agents to ensure that their respective clients are being represented and will protect each party's confidential information.

If the buyer and seller are represented by the same agent, then that agent and Howard Hanna will act as dual agents, but only if both parties agree. As dual agents, they will treat both parties honestly, prepare and present offers at the parties' direction, and help the parties to understand their contractual obligations. They will not, however, disclose any confidential information that would place one party at an advantage over the other, or advocate or negotiate to the detriment of either party.

If dual agency occurs, then you will be asked to consent to it in writing. If you do not agree to dual agency, then you may ask for another agent in Howard Hanna to represent you, or you may seek representation from an attorney or another brokerage. As a buyer, you may choose to represent yourself on properties that Howard Hanna has listed. In this case, Howard Hanna will represent the seller and you would represent your own best interests. However, the listing agent will still be able to provide you with non-confidential information, prepare and present offers at your direction and assist you in the financing and closing process. Because the listing agent has a duty of full disclosure to the seller, you should not share any information with the listing agent that you would not want the seller to know. A Howard Hanna licensee who holds an open house on behalf of a Howard Hanna seller's listing agent will be considered a "host" and not the seller's agent unless it is agreed to in writing or otherwise required by law.

Working with Other Brokerages: When Howard Hanna lists a property for sale, it cooperates with and offers to share some of the listing compensation with other brokerages that represent buyers. Howard Hanna reserves the right, in some instances, to vary the compensation that it offers to other brokerages. As a seller, you should understand that Howard Hanna's sharing of a fee with the brokerage representing the buyer does not mean that you will be represented by that brokerage. Instead, the buyer's brokerage and agent will be obligated to advance the buyer's interests and Howard Hanna will represent your interests. When acting as a buyer's agent, Howard Hanna also accepts compensation offered by the listing broker. If the property is not listed by another broker, or the listing broker does not offer compensation, then Howard Hanna will attempt to negotiate for a Seller-paid fee.

Compensation for Brokerage Services: If you are a seller represented by Howard Hanna, at closing you will pay listing compensation as described in your Purchase Agreement and/or Exclusive Right To Sell Agreement. This compensation typically consists of both a flat fee ($265.00) and a percentage of the purchase price. The percentage component is typically split with the buyer's broker and the remainder of that shared with your individual agent; the flat fee amount is retained by Howard Hanna. Both components are for all the general brokerage services Howard Hanna has available and/or provides to you as the seller, including any sharing of compensation with the buyer's brokerage. If you are a buyer represented by Howard Hanna, you will pay buyer broker compensation as described in your Purchase Agreement and/or any Exclusive Buyer Agreement you have with Howard Hanna. The compensation for buyer broker services typically consists of both a flat fee ($265.00) and a percentage of the purchase price. Typically, the percentage component is covered when Howard Hanna shares in the listing compensation paid by the seller, with such share being split with your individual agent, while the flat fee amount is paid by you as buyer and retained by Howard Hanna. Both components are for all the general brokerage services Howard Hanna has available and/or provides to you as a buyer. If you as buyer wished to proceed in a transaction where there was no sharing of listing compensation, then you could be asked to pay both the flat fee and a percentage of the purchase price for services rendered to you; however, because it is Howard Hanna's policy to accept a share of the listing compensation, most buyers pay only the flat fee for their buyer services.

Fair Housing Statement: It is illegal, pursuant to the Ohio Fair Housing Law, division (H) of Section 4112.02 of the Revised Code and the Federal Fair Housing Law, 42 U.S.C. 3601, as amended, to refuse to sell, transfer, assign, rent, lease, sublease, or finance housing accommodations, refuse to negotiate for the sale or rental of housing accommodations, or otherwise deny or make unavailable housing accommodations because of race, color, religion, sex, familial status as defined in Section 4112.01 of the Revised Code, ancestry, military status as defined in that section, disability as defined in that section, or national origin, or to so discriminate in advertising the sale or rental of housing, in the financing of housing, or in the provision of real estate brokerage services. It is also illegal, for profit, to induce or attempt to induce a person to sell or rent a dwelling by representations regarding the entry into the neighborhood of a person or persons belonging to one of the protected classes.

We hope that you find this information helpful as you begin your real estate transaction. When you are ready to enter into a transaction, you will be given an Agency Disclosure Statement that specifically identifies the role of the agents and brokerage(s). Please ask questions if there is anything that you do not understand.

Because it is important that you have this information, Ohio law requires that we ask you to acknowledge receipt of this Consumer Guide. Your "Acknowledgment of Receipt" of this Consumer Guide is not a contract and does not obligate you to Howard Hanna in any way.
