247 Etched Bugs Bunny Warner Store Display Glass
What a fantastic rare find! This is an etched glass display featuring Bugs Bunny that was made by Warner Brothers for in-store displays in the 1990s. The piece measures 32x32" and is based on an animation guide for Bugs Bunny. When WB closed down their stores, most of these displays were destroyed. So, beyond being extremely hard to find in general, this one is in gorgeous as-new condition! It would look amazing when lit from the bottom, the etchings will glow! Note that being nearly 1/2" thick tempered glass, this item is HEAVY. We highly suggest local pickup, but if you win this item and it requires shipping, it will need to be crated specially, so be prepared for a beefy shipping cost.
